

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

READ THE SENTENCES

Set A

1. We shopped and baked for her birthday.
2. The raised flag of America waves in the breezes.
3. Justin likes making up nicknames for friends.
4. The people hoped for and tried to win freedom.
5. The stars are brighter and the moon is shinier.
6. Your stripes are redder and thinner than mine.

Set B

1. Mark traced stripes on the wall before painting it.
2. Hang the largest stars higher than the tinier ones.
3. When Jen flies the flag it reminds her of freedom.
4. Rachel liked funnier, cuter nicknames for her cat.
5. Al baked a cake with sprinkles for Mom's birthday.
6. People like swimming and diving in America.

Set C

1. America has some of the rockiest mountains and greenest valleys you will ever see.
2. Those who have freedom are luckier and happier than those who don't.
3. My older brothers have the shortest and easiest nicknames to remember.
4. The racing car had a flag and stripes glued on it.
5. The stars were twinkling and shining like diamonds.
6. My birthday was the snowiest, coldest day of the year.